

NB: An "unauthorized" response from the Authentication component results in an error and a return to the login screen for the Web Application, with the current request getting dropped.

